SIX CENTS WILL PAY FOR THE

We are not sure that this has not before "been the rounds;" but not lately. It is good enough to resuscitate, as the Boston Boe has done for it: THE FROG.

PENNY PRESS ONE WEEK.

Of all the funny things that live
In woodland, marsh or bog,
That creep the ground or fly the alr,
The funniest is the frog—
The frog—the scientifickest
Of Nature's handlwork—
The frog, that neither walks nor runs,
But goes it with a jerk.

With pants and coat of bottle-green,
And yellow fancy vest,
He planges frie mud and mire—
All in his Sanday best,
When he atta down he's standing up.
As Faddy O'Quian once said,
And for convenience sake he wears
His eyes on the top of his head

You see him sitting on a log.
Abore the "vasty deep;"
You feel inclined to say, "Old chap,
Just look before you less!"
You rakes your came to hit him on
His ugly-looking mug;
Hut ere you get it half-way up,
Adown he goes "kerching."

"Bob, where is the state of mat-rimony?" "It is one of the United States. It is bounded by hugging and kissing on one side and cradles and bubies on the other. Its chief products are population, broomsticks and staying out late of nights. It was discovered by Adam and Eve while trying to find a north-west passage out of Paradise. The climate is sultry till you pass the tropics of housekeeping, when squally weather commonly sets in with such power as to keep all hands as cool as cucumbers. For the principal roads leading to this interesting State. consult the first pair of blue eyes you run against."

An Arkansas candidate for Congress sets forth his qualifications for office in the following language: ""."
"Gentleman, if I am elected to this office, I will represent my constituents as the sea represents the earth, or night contrasts with the day. I will unrivit all human society, clean all its parts and screw it together again. I will correct all senses,

A bachelor says: A woman will cling to the chosen of her heart like a fly to a "Catch-em-alive," and you can't separate her without snapping strings no art can mend, and leaving a portion of her soul on the upper-leather of your affections. She will sometimes see something to love where others see nothing to admire; and when fondness is once fastened on a fellow, it sticks to him like a penny stamp to an envelope, or a tax-gatherer to your

THINGS THAT WILL NOT PERISH.-The everlasting hills will crumble to dust, but the influence of a good name will never die. The earth will grow old and perish, but virtue in the heart will be ever green, and flourish throughout eternity. The sun will be blown out, and roll from the heavens, the moon and stars will grow dim, but true and undefiled religion will grow brighter, and not cease as long as God himself shall endure.

Boys, if you don't want to fall in love keep away from muslin. You can no more play with girls without losing your hearts, than you can play with imblers without losing your money The heart-strings of a woman, like the tendrils of a vine, are always reaching out for something to cling to. The consequence is, that before you are going you are "gone" like a lot at auction

Peter, Peter, I sees a toad!" said a little darkey to his brother one day, as they were digging over a heap of manure. "Whar is he, Joe?"

"Why, right dar. Don't you see'm?" "No; hit him wid de hoe!

Joe hit the toad a crack, which brought Peter to the ground.

"Oh you fool, Joe! Dat was my toe! I seed it all de time!"

A GRACE .- Dr. Adam Clark, who had a strong aversion to pork, was called upon to say grace at dinner, where the principle dish was roast pig. He is reported to have said :- "O Lord, if Thou canst bless under the Gospel what Thou didst curse under the law, bless this pig."

Two men, strangers to each other, got into a dispute, when one of them exclaimed, threateningly: "I will let you know, sir, that I am Mr. Hodge." "Oh! well, I am equal to several of you," said the other, "for I am Mr. Hodges."

If dull weather affects you, marry a merry, warm-hearted girl, and make a sunshine for yourself. Bachelors will find this far superior to either billiards or Burgundy. Fact—woman is a "con-venience!"

An Irishman went to live in Scotfor a short time, and didn't like the country. "I was sick all the time I was there," says he, "and if I had lived there till this time I'd been dead a year ago."

THE SOCKDOLOGER, -One of the illiterate who "had a call to preach," recently set his congregation on the broad grin, at the close of a hammer-and-tongs sermon, by requesting them to "Sing the Sockdologer."
